

Kids! Test Your Intuition and Get To Know Me Better

Here's a challenge for you—can you guess which of my adventures are true and which are tales? Here are ten facts about me. Well, almost facts. Eight of them are true, two of them are false — and those two are things I almost did. See if you can guess which is which! A link to the true-false answers is below, although some truths are buried within...no peeking!

True or False!

1. I've lived in a haunted house and witnessed ghostly happenings.
2. I went to Woodstock and stayed in a tent, in the rain.
3. I once appeared on the Today Show, interviewed by Jane Pauley, after successfully lobbying for the passage of a bill.
4. I lived in Brittany, France, for a year, in an unheated stone cottage.
5. I used to hang out alone and do my homework in a graveyard.
6. I been down 10,000 feet to the sea floor in the submersible ALVIN, a three-man submarine — twice.
7. I've climbed mountains in Tibet, including the sacred, 21,000-foot Mount Kailash.
8. I've been a geyser gazer in Yellowstone National Park, and watched wolves, elk, moose, buffalo, mountain goats, bighorn sheep, mountain lions and grizzly and black bears.
9. I sang lead vocal at a rock concert in college.
10. I spent two months sailing in the fjords of Patagonia, Chile, on a tiny boat with two scientists, two Chilean sailors, and three live sheep, which became lamb chops.

Have your guesses? Okay, let's have a look.
